How our investment work?

To start investment, clients' investment account needs to be funded.

To fund your trading account, log into your trading account using the email and password registered during the sign-up process.

Go to the deposit section, enter amount at the corresponding deposit option of choice. Transfer to the deposit address displayed on the receipt section.

Once your transaction is confirmed on blockchain, it will be automatically approved.

To activate an investment plan, go to invest section, choose the plan to invest in, enter the amount of capital to invest and proceed.

On submission of investment activation form, your trading account will be debited, and the fund instantly transferred to the trading managers, who will move the allocated fund to the portfolio corresponding to your selected plan.

On maturity of your investment, your capital and interest will be paid into your trading account.
